ABOUT The Cover

El Choco is an XL American Bully owned by Kimberley Cunningham of Franklin. A registered ABKC breeder stud, he is 4 years old and known for his gentle, goofy personality. El Choco enjoys traveling, cuddling in the truck's backseat, attending dog shows, being pampered, and taking long naps. He is affectionate with everyone and every animal, but has an unexpected fear of sombreros.

The truck is a 1947 International pickup designed in classic Rat Rod style, powered by a 383 Stroker motor and owned by Lanny Rogers of Franklin.

Lucy came into my life after being abandoned at a groomer and rescued by Doodle Dandy Rescue. I spotted her photo on Facebook, drove to Conroe to meet her, and knew instantly she was mine. She may have three legs, but her spunk is endless, and she goes to work with me every day.

Jack came into my life after a long hospital stay, when a coworker surprised me by bringing him to the Tax Office to welcome me back. He is now completely spoiled, knows exactly who gives snacks, begs shamelessly for food, and throws tantrums during tank cleanings. Jack has truly made the office a happier place.

Zoey came into our lives after heartbreak and truly felt Heaven-sent. After losing our puppy during Snowid 2021, we found Zoey as a seven-week-old pup in Franklin and she helped heal our hearts. She is our princess and proudly knows she is the favorite. She is actually our only dog that was not rescued from @Urgent Animals of Hearne. We like to say that she rescued us.

Coco may be tiny, but her personality is anything but small. A slipper-nipping, surprise-zoomie expert, she plays the tough girl until someone gets close, then turns into the sweetest little fluffball. When not supervising the house, Coco treats napping like a competitive sport. Small in size, huge in drama, and impossible not to love.
